Summer?

Hey?

What?

If all you do is look back,

you'll lose
the will to walk.

even if I forget, it still
happened,
right?

But,

Oh. If you say so.

It's just the sound of bugs
fluttering around.

Everyone from Shion Academy's 8th grade class, thank you for flying with us today.

We are expecting some turbulence.

However, it will not affect our flight.

Your pilot today is Oowa Yuuichi. Your attendants will be Oowa Kyouko and four others.

Hey, Oowa! Can you ask your dad to let us see the pilot's cabin?

Oowa, are you gonna be a pilot too?

Thank you for flying with us, and for getting along with my son.

YOU'RE WELCOME--

Ugh.

He's having fun with this.

Now, for a message to you all from our pilot.

I wanna see the hold.

Let's take a picture in front of the engine when we land.

Is that Oowa's mom?

So young!

It's kind of funny how your name keeps showing up everywhere

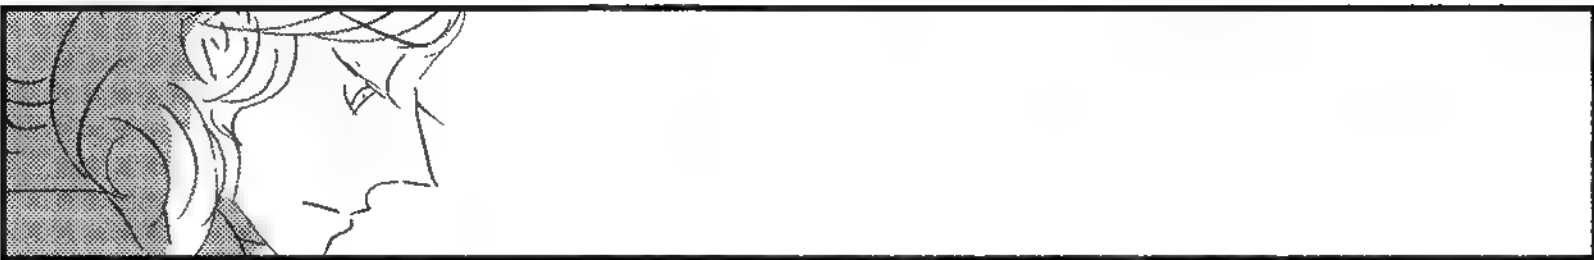

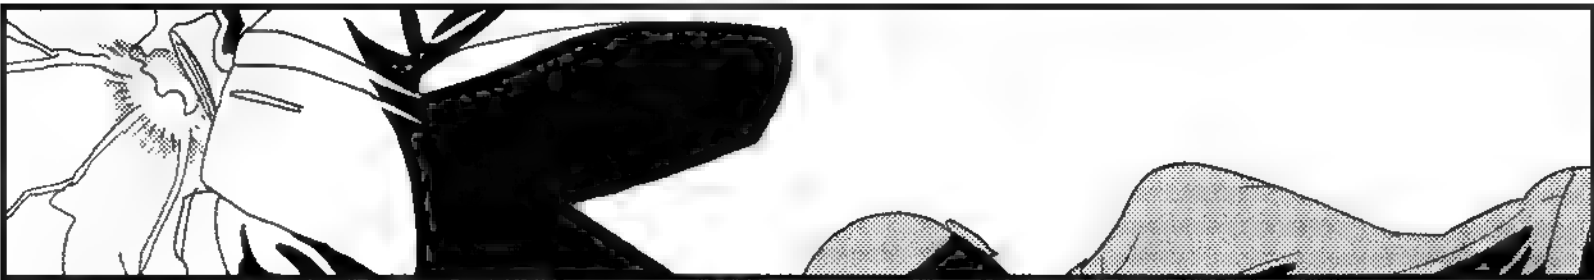

I think it's cool

Do you? It's just a coincidence that we have the same name, but it's making me feel all pressured like I'm the one flying everyone around

Shh, she can hear you! I don't want another three months of answering the "which salon did I go to today" quiz!

It's really shaking

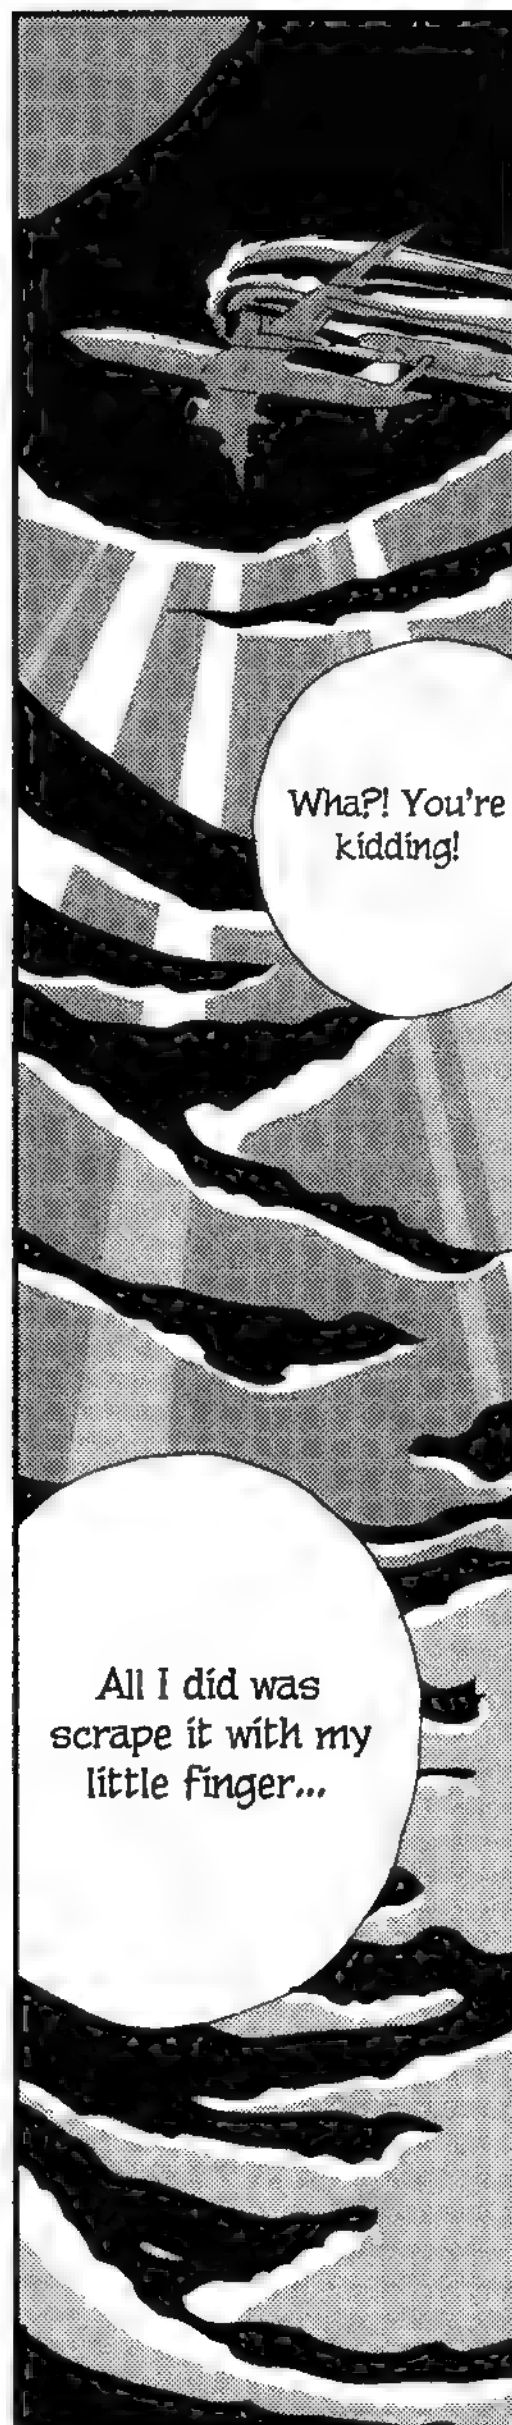

Oh man.

Everything's spilling on
out. It's like a star's being born.

Wha?! You're kidding!

All I did was scrape it with my little finger...
